Mayor Moe was also inducted into the MML Hall of Fame in 2015; and

WHEREAS, Craig A. Moe retired from the State of Maryland on January 1, 2018, with 31 ½ years of service. He served in the Maryland Transit Administration Police Force from 2003-2007 as a Special Assistant to the Police Chief and as Maryland's Assistant Secretary of State from 1999 until 2003; and

WHEREAS, in 2019, Mayor Moe appointed a City of Laurel Homelessness and Community Services Task Force following a 2015 feasibility study, who recommended a list of needed services for the Laurel area; and

WHEREAS, in 2020, the COVID-19 Pandemic hit the United States and Prince George's County very hard and from the beginning of the pandemic when there were so many unknowns about the virus, Mayor Moe and then City Administrator the late William F. Goddard, III, immediately went to work reading everything they could to learn about the virus, participating in phone calls with County and State Health Officials, coordinating with the City's Health Officer, Dr. Unegbu on how to best protect the residents, businesses and employees of the City of Laurel. Mayor Moe and Mr. Goddard were at the Municipal Center working every day even when the majority of employees were working from home and the Governor had issued Stay at Home orders; and

WHEREAS, the City of Laurel made it through the pandemic well, providing Personal Protective Equipment (PPE), partnering with community organizations to provide food, financial assistance, COVID-19 testing, and eventually vaccinations as soon as possible and this was largely due to Craig A. Moe's leadership, compassion and dedication to the people of the City of Laurel; and

WHEREAS, the COVID-19 pandemic highlighted the need for a multiservice center that would offer one central location to provide services and be part of the solution of homelessness in the Greater Laurel area; provide support services for individuals experiencing homelessness or near homelessness; maintain ongoing partnerships with other local service organizations in offering resources to the community; provide emergency sheltering and daytime respite; provide onsite medical and mental health evaluation and treatment including one-on-one case management and counseling services; be a part of the solution to address food insecurity in the Greater Laurel area; and assist in the transition of temporary sheltering to long-term housing; and

WHEREAS, in 2020, an opportunity presented itself to purchase a large commercial building that had once been a privately owned gym located at 204 Fort Meade Road in Laurel that Mayor Moe envisioned the unique location as being the perfect site for the Laurel Multiservice Center; and

WHEREAS, Mayor Craig A. Moe, with the support of his Administration and the approval of the Laurel City Council, acquired the property at 204 Fort Meade Road and began efforts to seek partnerships from local organizations, Prince George's County agencies and funding from the State of Maryland through the 21st District Delegation, to support the planning, engineering and construction of the property into the new Laurel Multiservice Center; and

WHEREAS, construction on the first phase of the Laurel Multiservice Center began in December 2022 and included the conversion of the existing gymnasium, two multipurpose rooms, and multiple storage rooms for equipment and emergency supplies. The entire roof of the building was replaced, as well as installation of a new HVAC and fire sprinkler system. The area will be used to generate revenue under the Department of Parks and Recreation, as well as for use by the residents of the Laurel Multiservice Center to promote physical wellness; and

WHEREAS, the second phase of construction focuses on the resource center and short-term housing sections. The building is being modified to accommodate all proposed services of the Laurel Multiservice Center with completion planned for 2024, and

WHEREAS, after 21 years as City of Laurel Mayor, Craig A. Moe decided to retire in 2023, but he will remain Mayor of the hearts of many City residents for years to come and because of his countless contributions to the City of Laurel, his legacy will never be diminished; and

WHEREAS, the City of Laurel is the wonderful place it is today because of the service and dedication of the longest serving Mayor in Laurel's history: Mayor Craig A. Moe, and

WHEREAS, Craig A. Moe has touched the lives of many with his selflessness, dedication, kindness, vision, and unwavering leadership that will continue to improve the lives of people in the City of Laurel for years to come through the Laurel Multiservice Center; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the re-naming of the Laurel Multiservice Center should move forward due to the City receiving six (6) applications, one from Mrs. Elizabeth Compton, one from the Honorable Gayle W. Snyder, former Laurel City Council President, one from the Honorable G. Rick Wilson, former Laurel City Councilman, one from Mr. William Wellford, lifelong City resident of Prince George Street and longtime Chief Election Judge for the City of Laurel Board of Election Supervisors, one from the Honorable Michael R. Leszcz, former Laurel City Council President and Mrs. Mary-Eileen Leszcz, lifelong resident of the City of Laurel and current member of the City's Historic District Commission, one from Ms. Jacqueline Ricks, resident of the Willow Oaks Community and City of Laurel Chief Election Judge, Ward 2; and

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, by the Mayor and City Council of Laurel, Maryland, that the Honorable Craig A. Moe, a man of high integrity, dedication and service to the State, County and City of Laurel is well deserving of a City building being re-named after his lifelong service to the community of Laurel, for the immeasurable, indisputable, everlasting mark he has left all over the City of Laurel, and for his dedicated hard work on behalf of the City of Laurel residents and businesses, and his vision towards insuring the Laurel Multiservice Center would be created to continue helping people for years to come; and

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that after careful review, and following the City of Laurel Naming policy, the Laurel Multiservice Center is hereby re-named the Craig A. Moe Laurel Multiservice Center.

AND, BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that this Resolution shall take effect on the date of its adoption.
