

Section 1/100 ♦ Standards of Conduct
1 / 112	Payment of Debts	8/15/94
Accreditation Standards

Employees of the Laurel Police Department shall make every effort to pay all just debts and legal liabilities when they incur. Disciplinary action may be taken when:

- Judgments of creditors have been finally adjudicated and the employee, even though able to pay, has refused to comply with such judgment, or,
- The effects of such indebtedness has adversely affected the ability of the employee to perform his / her job or had negatively reflected on the reputation and / or effectiveness of the Department.

Absent extenuating circumstances, disciplinary action shall be inappropriate where:

- The employee has made a genuine and sincere effort to pay his / her debt, or
- The employee has filed for a voluntary bankruptcy petition.
