

Section 1/100 ♦ Standards of Conduct
1 / 145	Property	3/9/98
Accreditation Standards	26.1.1

An employee shall not intentionally manufacture, tamper with, falsify, destroy, or withhold evidence or information.

Property which has been received as evidence in connection with investigations or which, for any other reason, comes into the custody of this Department, will be processed in accordance with established procedures. An employee shall not convert to their own use, manufacture, tamper with, or damage through negligence, or destroy, or in any other way misappropriate any evidence or any other material or property found in connection with an investigation or other police action, except in accordance with established Department procedures.
