3 / 605.05 USE OF THE MOBILE COMMAND UNIT

The Mobile Command Unit has been developed to allow for communications and on-scene command post operations. The unit is large enough to accommodate at least four (4) persons and a Communications Specialist on the scene of major incidents, or planned events in which the unit's presence would enhance or further the efficiency of the agency's ability. Examples of usage would include but not be limited to the following:

- Large public gatherings, i.e.:
 - ♦ Laurel's Main Street Festival
 - ♦ Laurel's July 4th Celebration
- Barricade/Hostage situations
- Public demonstrations
- Major crime scenes, if requested
- Outdoor crime prevention displays
